QUIZ – GUIDELINES

- The quiz is targeted for higher secondary students only
- Each team should consist of two members. Individual participants are not allowed.
- Multiple teams are allowed to participate from a school
- Registration fee – Rs 150/- per team
- Registrations should be done online through our official website and payment is to be carried out on the day of the competition at the spot registration desk
- Spot registration starts at 9am and closes by 10am
- It will be a general quiz where all categories and topics have equal importance
- The use of mobile phones and any other internet connectivity gadgets are strictly discouraged during the competition and the team shall be disqualified for the same.
- School ID (or) Authorization letter should be produced at the time of registration
- The decision of the Quiz Master will be final and binding

EXHIBITION – GUIDELINES

- The exhibition is targeted for students from 8th to 12th standard students. All participants will be treated as one category and there will not be further division.
- The exhibition has three tracks – Working model , Still model and Paper presentation
- Teams can register for one or more of these tracks
- Registration fee – Rs 400/- for working models and Rs 200/- for still models and paper presentations per team
- Each team can have 2-4 members. There should be a team leader.
- Registrations should be done online through our official website and payment is to be carried out on the day of the competition at the spot registration desk
- Spot registration starts at 9am and closes by 10am
- An abstract of the work in not more than 500 words may be produced at the time of exhibition
- For working models, basic circuits can be bought from outside but the final assembly of the model should be done by the participants only. (The whole model cannot be bought from outside)
- Maximum time for paper presentation will be 15mins
- School ID (or) Authorization letter should be produced at the time of registration
- All models or exhibits will be judged based on their creativity, technical skill, originality, display and presentation.
- The decision of the judging panel will be final